EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

U. C. S. EXAMINATIONS.—GENERAL TEST.

The 10th January 1880.

The following Notice is published for general information.

R. G. HODSON,
Offg. Director of Public Instruction,
Mysore & Coorg.

Candidates whose names have been registered for the approaching Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination to be held at Bangalore, are informed that the General Test Examination will commence on Monday, the 9th February, at 10 A. M. precisely.

Candidates should present themselves at the Central College, Bangalore, at half past 9 A. M. each day; but all those who have previously passed one or more branches of the test should not attend on the first day.

The examination will be conducted under the superintendence of the Principal, Central College.

The attention of Candidates is called to the following rules:—

(1.)—No Candidate will be allowed to quit the Examination Room on any day until the expiration of half an hour from the time fixed for the commencement of the Examination, and Candidates arriving after the expiration of that half hour will not be admitted.

(2.)—No Candidate will be allowed to re-enter the Examination Room, during the hour of Examination, after once quitting it, nor to leave the room without finally giving up his answer papers.

(3.)—Any Candidate detected in speaking to, or in any way communicating with, any other Candidate, will be at once removed from the room, and the circumstance be reported to the Commissioner.

(4.)—No Candidate will on any account be allowed to take into the Examination Room books or papers of any kind. Any one detected with such in his possession, or having recourse to any unfair practices, will be removed from the room and the occurrence be reported to the Commissioner.

(5.)—A Candidate having completed his paper will rise from his seat and remain standing until the Superintendent takes his answer papers. Any Candidate wishing to ask any question will pursue the same course, but will on no account leave his place.

(6.)—Any paper sent up without the Candidate's name and number affixed will not be examined.

(7.)—Candidates will not be allowed to take any papers, except their question papers, out of the Examination Room.

(8.)—Candidates are forbidden to tear up papers or to throw papers on the floor. All "spoilt copies, &c.," should be left on the desk where the Candidate has been writing.

(9.)—Candidates will be allowed to retain their question papers.

3. Narsapur	..	Malur Taluk	..	Kolar District.

No. 785—540. The 28th January 1880.

The following Circular No. 142, dated the 12th January 1880, by the Director General of the Post Office of India, is published for general information and guidance.

B. MARI GANGAIYA,
Anche Bakshi.

"As the vessels of the P. & O. Company running between India and Ceylon will, in all cases, be non-contract vessels after the 1st February next, I have the honor to inform you that correspondence for Ceylon despatched by those vessels will be subject to the rates and conditions now applying to correspondence forwarded to Ceylon by the P. & O. Steamers for Australia (see 'Ceylon by private vessel,' page 33 of the Postal Guide of December 1879). The route 'viâ Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, by British Packet through Galle,' now given in the Postal Guide under the head 'Ceylon' (Foreign Post Schedule) will, therefore, be struck out of the Guide after the 1st February next.

2. Correspondence despatched by P. & O. vessels between Calcutta and Madras will be subject, after the 1st February next, to the rates and conditions applicable to correspondence despatched by private vessel; prepayment will, therefore, be compulsory and registration not available for such correspondence.

3. Correspondence for China, the Straits and the Australian Colonies, conveyed from India to Galle by the non-contract vessels of the P. & O. Company, and from Galle to destination by the contract vessels of the same Company, need not be regarded as correspondence forwarded by 'private vessel.'

4. The Postal Guide will probably be re-published in April next, the changes shewn above will appear in the next edition of the Guide.
